Fender Blues Junior: Review, Tone Tips & More - YouTube

The Fender Blues Jr IV is an upgrade of the more classic sounding III. Side by side, the overall sound from IV is definitely fuller, so I can say the sound improvement is significant. However, there are also some fundamental changes which might divide the Fender crowd. The Fender supporters who like the classic tone might still prefer III.

Fender Blues Jr IV Vs III - 7 Differences You Need To Know ...

The Fender Blues Junior III is all about portability and sound, so in typical Fender style, it's been put together in a business-like manner, from their Mexico factory. The Tolex is crudely applied with no class whatsoever, so you can quite clearly see the folds (and the screws holding it together), which

Fender Blues Junior III review - The Blogging Musician

This is a lower watt speaker but it really makes the Fender Blues Junior come alive. The Cannabis Rex is a very efficient speaker too. It will be loud and fat sounding that's for sure. This is a huge upgrade over the stock Blues Jr speaker. The Jensen CK12. I had a chance to test the Jensen CK12 with my Blues Junior a number of years ago.
